

IDENTIFYING AND WITNESSING TO THE CULTS

1. What is a cult?

- a. Webster defines a cult as a system or community of religious worshipers who follow dogma and practice rituals established by a founder and who have an obsessive devotion to that person and/or his ideas.
- b. A cult is a religious system of beliefs, worship, and rituals which grow out of and deviate from some previously established religion.
- c. A cult includes the body of adherents to a person, idea, or thing regarded as unorthodox or spurious by others.

2. What is a so-called Christian cult?

- a. Many religious groups take the name, Christian, but they do not adhere to the fundamentals of the Christian faith, “...which was once and for all delivered to the saints.” (Jude 3c)
- b. The basic and essential tenets of Christianity include the following:
 - (1) One God in essence as understood in the functionally distinct persons of the trinity: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. (Matt. 28:19)
 - (2) The deity of Jesus Christ, the second person of the trinity. (Col. 2:9; Heb. 1:3)
 - (3) The true humanity of Jesus Christ revealed through of the incarnation. (Matt. 1:21-25)
 - (4) The total sinfulness of mankind. (Rom. 3:10-12, 23)
 - (5) The eternal salvation of mankind is provided totally by the death of Jesus Christ on the cross where He bore the sins of the entire human race once for all time. (2 Cor. 5:14, 15; Heb. 9:28; 10:10, 12, 14; 1 Pet. 2:24; 1 Jn. 2:2)
 - (6) This salvation is individually appropriated by believing in Jesus Christ as one’s savior, putting one’s faith alone in Christ alone. (Acts 4:12; 16:31)
 - (7) The scriptures including Genesis through Revelation and excluding all other writings are the final and absolute authority in all matters of life and spirituality. (2 Tim. 3:16, 17)
 - (8) The interpretation of all scriptures is to be straight forward and literal unless the context clearly demands a figure of speech. [Examples: “...all the trees of the field will clap their hands.” (Isa. 55:12), and “The eyes of the Lord are in every place.” (Prov. 15:3a)]
- c. While a cult may grow out of and deviate from any previously established religion, so-called Christian cults base their beliefs on the Bible, but they distort the text, the meaning of words and the text, and/or add to the text. Those involved in Christian cults always claim to be the only true Christians.

- d. These Christian cults which deviate from the fundamentals of the faith, “once delivered to the saints,” should be the concern of every Christian. (Jude 3c)
- (1) Christians are to be “wise as serpents, and innocent as doves.” (Matt. 10:16)
 - (2) Christians must “test the spirits to see whether they are from God;”
(1 John 4:1)
 - (3) Christians must remember that in the last days many will pay “attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons,” (1 Tim. 4:1)
 - (4) Christians must be able to recognize false teachers and false prophets, wolves in sheep’s clothes (1 John 4:1b; 2 Pet. 2:1-3; cf. Matt. 7:15)
 - (5) Christians must be able to give a “defense for the hope that is” within them.
(1 Peter 3:15)
 - (6) Christians are not to be deceived and “led astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.” (2 Cor. 11:3; cf. Rom. 15:17, 18)
 - (7) Christians are not to accept “another Jesus” or a “different gospel” than those which The New Testament writers presented. (2 Cor. 11:4; cf. Gal. 1:8, 9)
 - (8) Christians are not to be so foolish that “Having begun by the (Holy) Spirit, they are now somehow being perfected by the flesh.” (Gal. 3:3)
- e. The closest word in the New Testament to “cult” is the word “sect,” found nine times (from the Greek: αἵρεσις - airesis - meaning: religious sect, heretical sect, dissension, division).
- (1) The Sadducees (meaning: righteousness) were the Jewish party from the priesthood and were aristocrats and people of rank. They were strong adherents to the letter of the written law, but they rejected the later traditions of the elders. While they believed in the free will of man, they did not believe in the resurrection of the body or of any future life after death. They were described as a “sect” by the apostles. (Acts 5:17; cf. 23:8)
 - (2) Paul was called “the ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes” (followers of Jesus Christ.). (Acts 24:5, 14)
 - (3) The Pharisees (meaning: separated, separatists) were the Jewish party from the scribes and were strong adherents to the letter of the law, which they continued to multiply into a form of extreme legalism. They held to a literal but fatalistic interpretation of the scriptures. They are described as a “sect” by the apostles. (Acts 15:5; 26:5)
 - (4) Peter writes concerning “destructive heresies” which will be introduced among believers. (2 Peter 2:1) Paul describes heresies (factions) as deeds of the flesh. (Gal. 5:20)
 - (5) Paul speaks to the Jewish leadership in Rome concerning “this sect,” (Christianity) which they claim “is spoken against everywhere.” (Acts. 28:22)

3. Some tenants and peculiarities of Christian Cults:

- a. There is usually one person who exercises dictatorial powers over the cult and this person has the final authority above the Bible in all matters.
- b. Rituals, worship, and practices of the cult are at variance with known scripture.
- c. Support for such rituals, worship, and practices are often found in writings other than the Bible.
- d. Cults place strong emphasis on human works to obtain salvation, to maintain spirituality, or to retain good standing in the cult. (Eph 2:8, 9; Titus 3:5-7; Gal. 3:1-3)
- e. Many cults replace Israel in the scriptures with their own adherents. (Rom. 11:1, 2, 28, 29)
- f. There are often secret doctrines and rituals known only by those initiated into the cult, or known only to a select group within the cult, or known only after so-called spiritual advance within the cult.
- g. Cults usually use a non-literal interpretation of the Bible.
- h. The exclusivity of cults often precludes anyone outside of their organization from obtaining salvation, spirituality, or any potential blessing from God.
