1. Definition:

- a. A drink offering or libation is a portion of wine poured out to a god or to the gods before drinking as part of worship.
 1. Sometimes, making a drink offering was done to propose a truce or ratify a solemn treaty of peace. It could be offered at the conclusion of a peace treaty.
 2. It could also be a fee paid to an official.
 3. It was especially offered for a truce with God during the ancient Olympic games.
 4. Often it was part of an offering at a feast.
- b. Biblically, it was a portion of wine offered with every sacrifice made as part of the worship of God. It was poured over the sacrifice as part of the ritual.

2. Vocabulary:

- a. נָסַק - nasak - Hebrew verb, meaning: to pour out as water or wine, as a drink offering (Hosea 9:4)
- b. נֶסֶק - nesek - Heb. noun, meaning: a drink offering (Gen. 35:14; Deut. 32:38)
- c. שָׁפַק - shappak - Heb. vb., meaning: to pour out (Ex. 4:9; 29:7, 12; Levit. 4:7, 18, 25, 30, 34)
- d. שֶׁפַּק - sheppek - Heb. n., meaning: a pouring out (Levit. 4:12)
- e. σπένδω - spendo - Greek verb, meaning: to pour out as a drink offering (Phil. 2:17; 2 Tim. 4:6)
- f. σπόνδη - sponde - Gk. vb., meaning: a drink offering or libation (Deut. 32:38 in the Septuagint (LXX) for נָסַק)
- g. ἐκχέω or ἐκχύω - ekcheo or ekchuo - Gk. vb., meaning: to pour out as blood (Levit. 4:7, 18, 25, 30, 34; Deut. 29:12 in the Septuagint (LXX) for שָׁפַק; Luke 22:20)

3. The first mention of a drink offering or libation in the Bible is found in Genesis 35:14 when God promised Jacob the continuation of the covenant that He made with Abraham and Isaac before him. (Gen. 35:9-15)
4. The second mention of a drink offering is found in Exodus 25:29 when God gave the instructions to Moses to make dishes, pans, jars, and bowls out of gold with which to pour libations, “drink offerings.”
5. The third mention is found in Exodus 29:40, 41 where the libation is specifically linked with the sacrifice of a lamb. The amount of the libation is given as “one-fourth of a hin of wine” which is equivalent to about one and a half pints. (Ex. 29:38-42)
6. On the day of first fruits, the beginning of the twenty-five days of barley harvest, “you shall offer a male lamb one year old without defect for a burnt offering to the Lord.”

It shall be offered with a grain offering, “two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil,” and “with its libation. a fourth of a hin of wine.” (Levit. 23:9-14)

7. Israel was to observe “the Feast of the Harvest of the first fruits,”
 - a. This was a second first fruits, also known as Pentecost, fifty days after the first first fruits. (Exodus 23:16)
 - b. “Also, on the day of the second first fruits, when you present a new grain offering to the Lord in your Feast of Weeks you shall have a holy convocation; ...” (Num. 28:26)
 - c. “Besides the continual burnt offering and its grain offering, you shall present them with their libations.” (Num. 28:31; Levit. 23:17, 18)
8. On the Feast of Booths, for seven days you shall present “offerings by fire to the Lord...burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and libations, ...” (Levit. 23:34-37)
9. When Israel entered into the promised land, they were to make offerings by fire to the Lord. They were to present burnt offerings from the herd or from the flock; and with their offerings they were to present grain offerings of fine flour mixed with oil along with their libations of wine. (Num. 15:5, 7, 10)
10. There are over sixty references to libations (drink offerings) in the Old Testament. Apparently, they are all made with wine.
11. Pagan and idolatrous worship included drink offerings of wine and blood, and even human sacrifices. (Deut. 32:38; Psa. 16:4; 106:37, 38; Jer. 7:18)
12. There will be legitimate drink offerings in the millennial kingdom. (Ezek. 45:16, 17)
13. The last reference in the Old Testament is found in Joel 2:14. Joel warns the Southern kingdom in 830 BC to repent and return to the Lord so that He might bless them with grain and libations to offer to Him.
14. Jesus spoke of His impending death on the cross as a drink offering. “This cup which is being poured out for you is the new covenant in My blood.” (Luke 22:20)
15. The apostle Paul also spoke of his impending death as a drink offering being poured out. (Phil. 2:17; 2 Tim. 4:6-8)
